

The Gospel of Neo-Christianity

George Antar

An introduction to spiritual happiness

Welcome my brother, welcome to Neo-Christianity, the gateway to spiritual Happiness.

This is the modern religion, the religion of the new world in which mankind is embracing itself to the full.

I apologies if I've started to bore you my brother but please remain reading, and let this book talk to you, let it contact your inner psyche.

Chapter 1: the truth of holy war

Warfare, the bane of the world and yet almost every ancient religion has committed it in some way, shape or form.

Conventional Christianity has killed hundreds in the crusades and in killing the innocent who they believed were cancerous to society (i.e. women they thought to be witches and Jews whom they believed started the black plague to poison Christian drinking water)

I admit that back then people were far more primitive than they were now but still, their basic anti-Semitism and fear at the time of the plague drowned out all commonsense. In the crusades, the killed in the name of god despite the fact that in the 10 commandments it says that thou shall now kill, thou shall not steal

It seems obvious that any religion that commits an act of warfare is contradicting itself and going against its God. By doing this they lose the connection between the great one and the religion.

Chapter 2: the segregation of denominations

Almost every religion has denominations of itself. Christianity has Protestant and Catholic. Judaism has Orthodox, Conservative and Reform. Islam has Sunni and Shiite. Buddhism has Zen and Vajrayana.

Despite being of the same religion, these faiths have segregated themselves from each other (e.g. in Ireland the Catholic IRA and Protestant UDA have thought each other, killing many in the process)

Religions have always been divided until now. In this religion you are either Neo-Christian or not. You cannot be Conservative Neo-Christian, Orthodox Neo-Christian, just Neo-Christian.

Chapter 3: the 10 commandments: revisited

- 1) Thou shall have no other gods before me: there is no god other than the great one as Neo-Christianity calls him. Even if we worship more than one god, it's simply the great one divided into many forms
- 2) Thou shall not worship false idols: an idol has little or no spiritual value other than being a shortcut of worship to the great one (also, in many churches we have false idols in the form of statues and tapestries)
- 3) Thou shall have not use the holy name in vain: the great one is unique and therefore has no need for a name (the great one is not a name, just a reference) therefore say what thou wishes and forget thine references when you say it
- 4) Keep the Sabbath day holy, labour for 6 days and rest on the seventh: many religions often exaggerate this and stop one from using basic tools for things like cooking and cleaning even though many find these things relaxing and recreational

- 5) Honour thine farther and mother: how do you do this, the bible doesn't say. You should of course show them respect, but never the less they shouldn't have total domination over your life and beliefs. Even though they say that they know what you're going through because they were once your age, they don't because we all think in different ways to each other. Only if you're in great danger should they intervene
- 6) Thou shall not murder: this is just general commonsense
- 7) Thou shall not commit adultery: I agree. If you truly love someone then you should remain loyal to them unless they are willing to allow you to love others (multiple marriages are allowed in Neo-Christianity)
- 8) Thou shall not steal (for it is wrong): is it wrong? Is it this commandment designed to protect? It protects the rich with much to steal but to the poor with nothing it is an irrelevance. If you are on the brink of oblivion, you commonsense will automatically discard this commandment and you may steal to survive
- 9) You shall not bear false witness against you neighbour: I think this could also be classed as common sense. Although, if you don't know that what you speak is false then this commandment becomes an irrelevance
- 10) Thou shall not covet neighbours possessions (including his wives): covet means to want/have something. You may wish for something as this is purely natural, but don't touch what thou can't afford or you may have to pay for it

Chapter 4: eating laws

We only have 3 very relaxed eating laws

- 1) No pork
- 2) No shellfish

3) Do not eat them in the summer months (May, June, July, august)

You don't have to follow this if you don't want to, but you should from a spiritual sense of view.

Chapter 5: the symbol of neo Christianity explained

- 1) The alpha and omega symbols show that god is the great beginning and end (alpha and omega being the first and last letters of the Greek alphabet)
- 2) The heart shows the love of god
- 3) The lightning bolt shows the power of god
- 4) The blank space shows the mystery of god
- 5) The line separating the symbols are in the form of a cross
- 6) The shield shows that god is our protector
- 7) The red shows the blood that Christ spilled for us
